SPETAKS

Between September 12, 2002, and July 17, 2003, President George W. Bush made 55 misleading statements about the threat posed by Iraq in 27 separate public appearances. Bush Administration officials have since explained that he merely 'misspoke.'*

* FYI, what Washington politicians term 'misspeaking' is what everyone else commonly considers 'lying.' Source: Iraq on the Record: The Bush Administration's Public Statements on Iraq, special investigative report by the US House of Representatives Committee on Government Reform, March 2004.
